

FRUIT GROWERS SAFETY AWARENESS SESSIONS

Safe Farming Tasmania and Fruit Growers Tasmania are hosting a statewide series of information sessions to discuss safety and other workplace issues affecting fruit growers and their workers.

Sessions have been developed in consultation with fruit growers, rural sector leaders and industry experts, and will focus on:

- ✓ minimum safety standards, obligations and expectations
- ✓ workplace safety and culture
- ✓ attracting and retaining workers
- ✓ electrical safety - Dial Before you Dig
- ✓ mental health - Rural Alive and Well
- ✓ fire reduction/burn offs - Red Hot Tips
- ✓ workers compensation and industrial relations information.

Come along and learn practical ways to:

- ✓ improve work health and safety in your orchards and farms
- ✓ positively influence your workers' attitudes towards safety
- ✓ attract new workers to our industry
- ✓ reduce injuries in your business and your insurance costs.

Sessions will be held at the following properties:

3 August - Wandin Valley Farms
21, Cawthorns Lane, Rosegarland

4 August - R & R Smith, 54
Lucaston Road, Grove

31 August - Costa Exchange, 211
Brooke Street, East Devonport

1 September - Woodmere
Cherries, 125 Los Angeles Road,
Dilston

Doors open at 12:00 noon to allow attendees the opportunity to mingle and network. Light refreshments will be provided.

Sessions start at 12.30pm
and run until 2:30pm.

To reserve your place scan the QR code or visit the Fruit Growers Tasmania website:

<https://bit.ly/SafetySessions>