

Concrete Placing Boom – PB

A concrete placing boom is plant incorporating an articulating boom, capable of power operated slewing and luffing to place concrete by way of pumping through a pipeline attached to, or forming part of, the boom of the plant.

Please note the description for this licence class has been altered and no longer refers to mobile truck-mounted concrete placing booms only i.e. operators of satellite concrete placing booms are required to hold a HRW licence.